

ENTERTAINMENT LAW SEMINAR

September 24, 2009.

The Texas Bar CLE is presenting the 19th Annual Entertainment Law Institute on October 1-2, 2009, in Austin. Sally Helppie has been selected to speak at the event. She will discuss the financing of entertainment properties.

The Institute is one of the preeminent programs on entertainment law, drawing experts from Los Angeles, New York, and Texas. In addition to financing, other seminar topics include copyright basics, music recording contracts, mobile entertainment and digital distribution. The two-day event provides 13.5 hours of continuing legal education to licensed attorneys.

Sally also is scheduled to speak at the upcoming Austin Film Festival.